

Dr. BK Yamini

She is an Additional prof. from Dept. of SPA, has a vast clinical background and research expertise in the area of neurogenic communication disorders and neurogenic dysphagia. Stroke, Head injury, Degenerative disorders, metabolic, and other conditions having dysarthria, apraxia, aphasia, and communication impairments are seen by her. Children and adolescents with ASD, ADHD, IDD Assessment, intervention strategies and counselling related to the specific condition is also provided and Audiological investigations are also carried out depending on the

A Postgraduate from All India Institute of Speech and Hearing, Mysuru and PhD from NIMHANS, She Bengaluru. Title of Her PhD thesis was "Speech characteristics in patients with ALS"

Guide to PhD students of NIMHANS as well as co- guide to PhD candidates from S-VYASA univ.

Collaborates with Dept. of Neurology in NIMHANS and with Dept. of Electrical Engineering in IISc. For research.

She has conducted workshops in the areas of Dysarthria and Dysphagia, within India and abroad, to both Speech Language Pathologists and a Mixed group of professionals handling children with Cerebral Palsy.

Her publications are in the area of Dysarthria, Voice tremor, Dysphagia, Child language and Auditory Neuropathy. She has authored a chapter on Language in Dementia in the book – She is member of the various Committees in premier Institute like AIISH, MAHE - Manipal and ISH. Recently she completed her term as the Hon. President of Indian Speech and Hearing Association- Bengaluru Chapter.